

Encourage One Another

June 13, 2004

Galatians 6:1-10

1. If a brother sins –

- Those who are godly, should gently and humbly help that person back on track
- Always remembering that you too can fall

2. Share each other's problems and troubles:

- This is how we fulfill the law of Christ - which is the law of love
- If you think you are too important to help someone else
- You are fooling only yourself
- You are really a nobody

3. Let each one examine his own work:

- If you want to be proud of your self - look at the work you have done and examine it
- Then you can have personal satisfaction of doing a job well done
- Then there is no need for comparing your self to anyone - but Jesus
- Each of us is responsible for our own work.

4. Hebrew 3:13:

- Exhort one another daily while it is called today; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

5. I Thessalonians 5:11:

- Wherefore comfort yourselves together and edify one another even as also ye do.
- And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;
- And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.
- Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.
- See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

6. Hebrew 10:24:

- And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works;
- Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.
- Take every opportunity to encourage one another – you never know the need that might be met unaware to you.